

Enable anytime access
to popular campus resources.

Enhance the student experience student and create vibrant campus communities
—one automated rental at a time.

RecRe is revolutionizing the way higher education institutions foster engagement and activate shared campus spaces. Our self-service rental solution offers easy, on-demand access to the resources students want and need—without unnecessary fees or hassles. And with RecRe's intuitive inventory management software, administrators can lend, track, and measure the impact of items that optimize engagement for smarter resource allocation.

CONVENIENT

Empower students to access the items they need to live their best campus lives—at any time, for free.

EQUITABLE

Mitigate financial burdens by encouraging students to share items they don't need to own.

SUSTAINABLE

Curb unnecessary consumption and waste while promoting eco-conscious resource-sharing practices.

Benjamin Perlman
AVP Student Engagement

“What RecRe has allowed institutions to do is to maximize the utilization of student life spaces for their intended purpose: student engagement. Students can use recreation and gaming equipment as well as campus programming supplies in ways that reduce staffing needs, increase resource usage, and maintain student accountability.”
